

Southern Italy – Puglia, Basilicata, Campagna (possible itinerary highlights)

- Spend a week at the seaside in Puglia at a traditional masseria (a restored farm estate) or a private villa
- Immerse yourself in a full day of hands-on cooking
- Visit the whitewashed hill towns of Puglia with a dynamic local guide, stopping to wander among the 1,000-year-old olive groves and a private tour of at one of Puglia's best olive oil producers
- Travel to Matera in Basilicata – a UNESCO World Heritage site – and hike the dramatic ridge overlooking the city before exploring this remarkable town that was once the 'shame of Italy.'
- Board a private motor yacht to cruise the Amalfi Coast between Positano and Amalfi
